"ARBITRARY," SAY THE CITIZENS.

Revolt Against Changes of Names of Streets Widespread and Most Emphatic.

ACTION OF COUNCIL CRITICIZED.

The action of the City Council in passing an ordinance Monday night, changing the names of most of the city thoroughfares, called forth a storm of protest yesterday afternoon when the Daily News came out with a list of new names which the Council substituted for the old. Many were very modest in expressing their protests, though showing great earnestness, others were rather more vigorous than elegant in making known their indignation. Some expressed the opinion that if a change be necessary the citizens on such street be given an opportunity to be heard and their wishes consulted. It was pointed out that Canal street became "Palmetto avenue" by petition of citizens living on the avenue.

Some pointed out that they were stocked up with thousands of picture postals, and views of greater cost, that would be practically worthless if the names were changed. And so it ran; one had one objection, another had something else, and no one seemed satisfied.

One man sneeringly asked: "How does 'Riverside avenue' sound, as a name for a business street?" and he looked daggers!

The action by different parties was pronounced "arbitrary," "meddlesome," "ill-advised," and then some.

Of course no one anticipated that the growth of the town would be what it is and no one can predict its future; if everybody would solidly present a united front, pulling for everything that helps the town, it would in ten years be the second city in size in Florida; if you stand aloof, if you knock, the town will languish, perhaps go back. Its future is with the present inhabitants.

Those who ought to know say that this action of the Council would necessitate a replanning of the city. Furthermore, it is said that they exceeded their authority in naming and renaming streets over which they had no jurisdiction, as instance in Ivy Lane, Myrtle Avenue, etc., not yet accepted as thoroughfares.

But a new Council will be induced into office very shortly, and may see things in a different light.

EXORBITANT TOLLS AN IRRITANT.

Public Sentiment Seems To Be
With Stillman-Langworthy
Stockholders.

GOOD BRIDGES, MINIMUM TOLLS.

The article in yesterday's Daily News telling of the action of B. A. Armstrong in enjoining the minority stockholders from exercising the functions of directors has again aroused the public on the bridge question. The directors recently elected stated that they intended to take steps to have the tolls reduced and the statement did not seem to settle well on the stomachs of the grasping majority stockholders, who, in order to feather well their own nests at the public expense, seem anxious to hold the bridge tolls to the maximum limit. It seems to be a case of "The public be damned" so long as the public will put up and not rebel against such extortion. Daytona must have good bridges but the prosperity of the towns on each side of the Halifax, the patrons of the bridges, depends largely on a just and equitable charge for their maintenance. Exorbitant tolls that go to make some distant owner rich, instead of remaining in these towns, is all wrong. No matter what the outcome of the injunction the public will probably now awake to the necessity of taking away from the bridge monopoly the control of traffic over the Halifax River—a monopoly as exacting as any "optopuslike" trust.

The Daily News has it pretty straight that the County Commissioners would take a long step toward building a bridge over the Halifax River were they rightly approached. Several wealthy gentlemen have said they would contribute to a bridge and if a start was to be made there is every likelihood that the Commissioners would take up the matter.

People living on the peninsula pay taxes the same as other people, and to be compelled to pay oppressive tribute to grasping monopolies has a tendency to make the milk of human kindness turn sour.

IT IS ALL FOOLISHNESS.

Editor Daily News:—Of all the legislation that has ever been perpetrated upon a long suffering community the act changing the names of our streets is the worst. The present generation will be gray-headed before they make the plan straightened out. Better make an appropriation for monuments for these dear people. Had I known that this business was brewing I might have petitioned to have some little bidden named for me.

A Naturalist's Ex- cursion in Florida.

[A friend of the Daily News hands in the entertaining letter annexed, which is from Mr. Audubon to the Editor of The American Museum Journal of Geology, etc., published at Philadelphia seventy-four years ago. Written to establish a personal her condition was different from the present, it can but prove of absorbing interest.]

[Concluded from yesterday's Daily]

I am extremely disappointed at this portion of the Floridas, and would not advise any one to visit it; because he may have read the flowery accounts of proceeding travelers. The climate is much more unhealthful than in Louisiana, in the same latitude, or anywhere along the Mexican gulf to the Sabine river, which is our boundary line. Game and fish, it is true, are abundant, but the valuable tillable land is too small to enable the peninsula ever to become a rich state.

I have seen nothing deserving your attention in a geological point of view, except quarries of stones which are a concrete of shells, excellent for building, and lying immediately under the surface of the sand, which everywhere seems to predominate. The concrete is curious in itself, and my friend Bulow, who is now erecting some very extensive buildings for a sugar house, has given me specimens, which I will forward you, showing the different grades or ages of their formation. The fragments are cut out of the quarries with the common wood axe and fashioned with the same instrument for buildings. You of course will readily make out that the water found in the neighborhood of all concretes is hard or calcareous, being filtered through a kind of natural shell lime.

I have done but little, I am sorry to say, in my line. Birds are certainly not abundant here at this season, and I can readily account for this deficiency in the land birds; it is for the want of mast, meat, so abundant in almost every portion of our country. But the water birds, notwithstanding all the fishes in every river, creek, or even puddle, that I have seen, are scarce beyond belief. It is true a man may see hundreds of pelicans and thousands of herons, but take those from the list and water birds will be found very scarce. I will see what spring will do and then write more fully on this, my most modest subject.

DR. BENNETT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shields and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morgan and son, A. J. Morgan, visited DeLand Tuesday evening, Mr. Walton being obliged to take the train at 7:06, and the others following by a later train.

streams and subject to inundation, which compel them to be often in the water. In such countries it is not an uncommon occurrence to find snakes afloat, and at a great distance from shore. This appears, no doubt, to those who live where there is almost nothing but dry land; still they ought to be good natured and believe what others have seen. It has now been made notorious, that numerous respected individuals, whom duty or the love of adventure, have led into the wilds of our country, have often seen snakes—and rattlesnakes, too—in trees; the good people, there, who pass their lives in stores and counting houses, ought not to contradict these facts, because they do not meet with rattlesnakes, hissing and snapping at them from the papers and mulberries, as they go home to their dinners. They should remember that they ought to go farther than daily distance if they wish to see anything extraordinary.

And now, my dear F. adieu. In my next I hope to give you some account of the St. Johns river, and of the interior of the peninsula of East Florida to the exploring of which I mean to devote some time. Very faithfully yours,

John James Audubon.

DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL IS INVINCIBLE—LARGE VOTE

Cast For The School—Elks Make

Gain on Miss Maggie Morgan

—Will Pass Her.

The Daytona High School certainly must be invincible. Just when the Rifles seem to be making some gains and many people think the High School is all in that institution fades every one else in the race and steps in with a vote of nearly 20,000 for a single day. The Elks had a fairly large vote and gained about 9,000 on Miss Maggie Morgan, who is in fourth place, ahead of them. The Elks and Eastern Stars had large votes, but not large enough to do any damage to the High School.

Outside of Daytona the Kingston school and the Seabreeze High School had large votes, but there were really no happenings of interest in this division of the contest. The Ormond school made no startling gain and still seems determined to capture the booby prize if there should be any.

If I did not believe the day to be gone by, when it was necessary to defend my snake stories, I could send you very curious accounts of the habits of those reptiles; and I should do it, if it were not that I might be thought to enjoy too much, that triumph which the feeble hostility of three or four selfish individuals has forced upon me. I received so many acts of real friendship, and disinterested kindness, that, I thank God, there is no room left in my heart to cherish unkind feelings towards any one. Indeed, I am not so much surprised at the incredulity of persons who do leave cities, for I occasionally hear of things which even stagger me, who are so often a denizen of the woods, and swamps. What do you think of rattlesnakes taking to the water, and swimming across inlets and rivers? I have not seen this, but I believe it; since the most respected individuals assure me, they have frequently been eye-witnesses of thisfeat. I can conceive of inducements which reptiles may have for traversing sheets of water to gain distant dry land, especially in a country much intersected

DOINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Bills to the amount of $2720.00 were presented and ordered paid except one of Hough and Bond for $1652.05. This latter bill was ordered to be paid by special assessment certificates.

The Mayor read his farewell message to the council and in doing so handed them a huge bouquet, praising them for their unselfish and unsparing efforts in behalf of the city in the face of great discouragements and criticism. Councilman Schmidt moved a vote of thanks to the Mayor and an Alphonso-Gaston scene ensued.

The report of the Treasurer was read and referred to the Finance Committee to be presented at the next meeting.

The following budget for 1909 was presented:

Maintenance Water Works	$2,500
Mayor	500
Clerk	300
Marshal and extra police	1,200
Attorney	100
Treasurer	100
Assessor	500
Collector	500
Physician	100
Interest on Bonds	3,000
Street Lights	1,500
Streets and Sewers	5,000
Sundries	1,000
Interest on Certificates	100
Hose and Hose Carts	1,000
Total	$25,000

Alderman Heymann's petition in regard to new depot was referred to next council for action.

Alderman Heymann was the only member of the council voting against the wholesale change in street names.

President Bingham gave notice of a called meeting for Wednesday evening at 7:30 to receive report of the Finance Committee.

ALBIA, France, Feb. 10.—For the first time since the guillotine was resumed in France a demonstration occurred against capital punishment today at the execution of Pierre Simon and Henri Beze in the prison court yard. Several thousand raised a cry against the execution and at the conclusion of the execution hundreds broke into revolutionary songs, and jeered the government.

Mr. and Mrs. Ikel left today on the return home trip, delighted with the beauty of this locality, and the fine climate.

Mr. Jobes is having his south retaining wall repaired. It had become undermined by the shifting of the sand.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lapp, of the House of Refuge, were in town today placing some of their fine fruit with the merchants. They made the trip down in their boat, "Grandma," which is one of the new-fangled, spry kind.

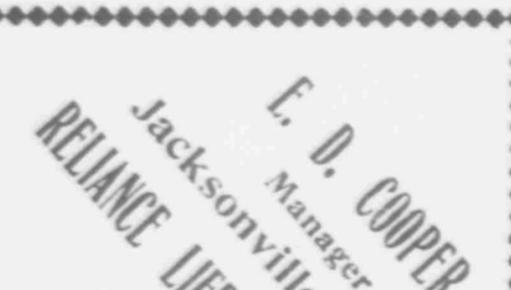

Mrs. Loretta Ward, whose recent purchase of peninsula property through the H. G. Wilson Co. was noted, is considering plans for building drawn by S. H. Gove.

Among the recent arrivals at The Princess Isenna the following are noted: T. J. Evans, Solomia Oyster, Utica, Ohio; Mrs. Geo. A. Flag, Misses Henrietta and Ada Flag, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Mary B. Martin and mother, Mrs. Banks, Huntington, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Buchanan, and daughter, Miss Buchanan, Harrington, Pa.

Mrs. A. C. Kitchel, of Miami, is here on a visit with Mrs. C. P. Lund and Mrs. W. Herrick. Mr. and Mrs. Kitchel were among the first settlers on the peninsula at this point. They bought or homesteaded a block of land near where the Phillips apartment house now stands, on Valley street and south, twenty-six years ago. Their neighbors were Charles Smith, C. A. Ballough and wife, and J. D. Mitchell. There was only a trail to the beach, and wild animals and game were plentiful. Speaking of her brother-in-law and family, who went from here to Seattle, Wash., several years ago, Mrs. Kitchel says they are all prospering; that the two girls are married, and Sam and his younger brother, John, making fine wages.

Mrs. J. B. Parkinson is again at her home, The Islington, on South Ridgewood avenue, having returned Monday afternoon.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ethereal draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas had from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile. Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are afame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach. One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sand; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pounce on a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

Why Was Job Afflicted?

"The origin, history and destiny of Satan" was the subject of Elder Parmenter's discourse at the tent last night. The Elder dwelt first upon the fact that there is an "innumerable company of angels that these angels are all-powerful, and that part of them sinned."

"Since that time," said the speaker, "Satan and his angels have been 'walking about, seeking whom he may devour.' I Peter 4:8. He has power to work miracles and will deceive all who are not firmly grounded on the word of God."

"Now for his destiny: In Ex. 28:19 we read that 'the time is coming when the Devil will be buried up, and shall never be loosed more.' The time is coming when sin, the instigator of sin, and all its consequences will be burned up together, as we read in Mal. 4:1-3, and may we all be prepared to stand in that awful day."

The subject for tonight is "Why was Job Afflicted?"

C. V. Achenbach, of Orlando, arrived in the city yesterday and will assist in the tent meetings.
